

Why Uma Umai?

Uma means horse in Japanese.
Umai means delicious.

No – we don't serve horse meat, we promise :)
The name has a small family story:

My father was born in the Chinese zodiac year of the horse,
and he was also the one who cooked the best in our family.
So we combined two things that fit perfectly together:

Uma for the horse
Umai for delicious food

Uma Umai – where heritage meets flavor.
Or as we say:

Where Uma meets Umai.
